

House Resolution No. 1685

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable young Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration for all those around her; and

Whereas, Blair Mobley, a senior at Kennett High School, in Kennett, Missouri, has been selected as an Honorable Mention in the 2003 Missouri Scholars 100, a statewide program that honors one hundred of Missouri's top academic students in the graduating class of 2003; and

Whereas, sponsored by the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals, Missouri Scholars 100 makes its selection based primarily on a formula using the student's grade point average and ACT (American College Testing) or SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) score; and

Whereas, each student nominated for Missouri Scholars 100 has to first meet the criteria of an academic decathlon consisting of ten events designed to assure academic strength of the student, such as a minimum GPA of 3.750; a minimum ACT score of 29 or a minimum SAT score of 1300; ranking in the upper 10 percent of the class; taking upper-level courses in mathematics, science, English, and foreign language; having an excellent attendance record; being an exemplary school citizen; and being involved in the school activity program; and

Whereas, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Libby and Dr. Everett Mobley, Blair Mobley has also distinguished herself through achievement as Class President, President of the Key Club, and as a member of the National Honor Society, the Choir, the All-District Choir, the Kennett High School Band, and the All-Division Band:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Blair Mobley for her well-deserved selection as an Honorable Mention in the 2003 Missouri Scholars 100, and in further wishing her continued success as she attends the University of Missouri next fall; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Blair Mobley, as a measure of our esteem for her.
